FOI Request

Thank you for your Freedom of Information dated 4th August. In your request you asked for the following information.

In an attempt to find out information in regards to the above, does the Crown Prosecution Service acknowledge Perjury and or Contempt of Court in Civil Proceedings as a Criminal Offence? If so how does one go about reporting the matter and to whom? Does the Crown Prosecution Service uphold the Perjury Act?

I have been the victim of Perjury in Civil Proceedings and I believe that the outcome of said Proceedings would have been so different in better circumstances. I need to be educated on how one goes about a situation like mine and how to seek Justice?

I can confirm that we do not hold any information in the scope of this request.

Your request relates to information about the Crown Prosecution Service and as such your request should be redirected to IAT@cps.gov.uk. I am sorry that we are unable to help you further.

If you are dissatisfied with any aspect of our response to your request, please send full details within two calendar months of the date of this email and send to the below email address: info@HMCPsi.gov.uk

You also have the right to ask the Information Commissioner to investigate any aspect of your complaint. Please note that the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) is likely to expect the internal complaints procedures to have been exhausted before beginning an investigation.
